

EPC INTERNSHIP PARTNER

Sponsor an intern and foster the growth of the next generation of leaders!

The PCMA Capital Chapter's Emerging Professional Committee (EPC) has developed a summer internship for students currently enrolled in a college or university pursuing a major in Hospitality and/or Event Management. The selected student(s) will benefit from a diverse learning environment within the convention & events management industry allowing the students to work in a hands-on environment alongside organizations within the PCMACC membership base!
